PRESS RELEASE

End of summer bash

Miami Beach, FL - A thrilling and exhilarating summer camp at the Scott Rakow Youth Center filled with fieldtrips, games, special events, the making of new friends, and activities came to an end on July 21, 2006. Hundreds of campers enjoyed their last day of summer camp by participating in a fun filled carnival organized by Program Supervisor, Donna Leighton. The afternoon began with a hot lunch served right off the grill along with icy cold refreshments. All the children surrounded the gymnasium doors waiting anxiously for the carnival to begin at 2:00 p.m.

With over 8 carnival games, snow cones, rock-climbing, and a chance to dunk their favorite coach in a dunk tank, campers enjoyed an exciting afternoon and an end of summer bash that was unforgettable. "This summer was awesome; I made so many new friends and had a lot of fun", said camper Suzette Vazquez. The Scott Rakow Youth Center looks forward to many more remarkable summer experiences.
